SOIL EROSION WORK TO START IN COUNTY

Regional Meet To Be Held Here Saturday

HUNDREDS OF ATHLETES TO PERFORM HERE

Pick of High Schools To Meet Saturday at W. T.

JUDGES NAMED

Winners Will Go to State Meet Held at Austin

Saturday, Canyon will be host to representatives from high schools of all northwest Texas when they meet here for the annual contests of the Texas Interscholastic League, Region One.

The contests are many kinds from Spanish and One-Act plays to tennis and golf.

All contests are open to the public upon payment of a twenty-five cent fee. The one-act play contests are usually of special interest; they will be held in the auditorium of the Education Building, beginning at nine Saturday morning; the finals will be at eight Saturday night.

Students and townspeople are working with the directors to make the meet a success. The golf tournament which will be held at the Canyon Club will be directed by Carl Scott and LeRoy Landers will direct the boys' tennis matches. Many people are opening their homes to visitors at a reasonable charge. Young people who come for the contests are usually prospective college students.

Directors of the meet Saturday include: Carl York, athletics; F. E. Savage, declamation and extemporaneous speech; C. Wesley Batchelder, plays; Miss Jennie C. Ritchie, essay writing; Supt. R. E. Vaughan, Panhandle, girls' debates; W. L. Vaughan, boys' debates; Miss Isabel Robinson, art; Carl Scott, golf; Mrs. T. V. Reeves, publicity; D. A. Shirley, mileage rebates; T. M. Moore, room and board for contestants; Mrs. Gervis Taylor, Amarillo, shorthand and typewriting; Miss Ruth Cross, girls' tennis; LeRoy Landers, boys' tennis; Mrs. Wallace O'Keefe, girls' volley ball; T. B. McCarter and Lee Johnson,

Negroes Moved To Sweetwater Makes CCC Camp White

The two CCC camps at the Palo Duro State Park are now composed entirely of white enrollees. Sixty negroes were entrained yesterday to Sweetwater where they go into an exclusive negro delegation for CCC work.

With the opening of the CCC work for ex-service men, the war department threw the white and colored men into the same camps. In some camps the relations were strained, although no trouble occurred while the two races were employed at the Palo Duro.

Sixty-seven new enrollees arrived at Palo Duro Saturday and more men are expected during the coming week.

Under the new plan, 240 men will be recruited in each company with the view of maintaining the strength up to 220 men per company throughout the period.

350 Young Men Are Wanted For Army Enlistment

Recruiting headquarters in Amarillo have called for 350 young men, 18 to 35 years of age, to join the army. There are being recruited 46,000 men over the nation, and 350 have been assigned to the Amarillo station.

A waiting list is being prepared of those who do not succeed in getting in on the first call for recruits.

TOPPING OF GOODNIGHT TRAIL GETS UNDER WAY

Historical Gathering Held Friday at W. T.

175 Attended the Banquet Friday Night at Cousins

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society convened at West Texas State Teachers College Friday in its fourteenth annual session. Judge H. E. Hoover, Canadian, presided. The program was divided into three meetings: that of the executives who drew up resolutions to be presented at the general business session of the society, which met at 2:30 p. m. in the Education Auditorium, and the banquet Friday evening attended by about 175 members of the Society and their guests.

W. H. Patrick, pioneer Clarendon banker, was elected to the presidency of the society for the coming year. Judge H. E. Hoover's term in the office ended Thursday.

W. T. Coble, Amarillo cattleman, and Judge James D. Hamlin of Farwell, were re-elected to the directorate.

In the afternoon, after the routine business was attended to, Horace Russell, of Amarillo, read a group of resolutions concerning the admission of new members into the organization and the contributions of sums of money or collections to the Society.

Three Boys Jailed As Result Charges Made in Theft Cases

Three Canyon boys are held in jail as the result of charges filed against them in Deaf Smith and Hale counties. Raymond Stallings is held at Plainview, while T. S. Stevenson and Bill Stice are held in Hereford.

The first charge against the boys was made when J. R. Wiseman of the Dawn community lost a truck and load of wheat last week. He charged that two of the trio tied him up, ramsacking his house, taking $20 in cash, his pistol and rifle, as well as the truck. Stice was arrested on this charge.

Stevenson was named in connection with the job. He was not caught with Stice, but is charged with joining Stallings in the theft of a car at Plainview, another car at Tucumcari, with looting a store at Dawn and a filling station at Hereford. This pair was arrested Saturday night in Amarillo by Deputy Sheriff W. L. Lyons and Highway Officer Shorty McCormick.

Stallings has been out on two suspended sentences, one for two years in the penitentiary, and the other three years in the reform school.

Governor Approves Appropriation For Work at West Texas

Governor Allred has approved two appropriation bills for W. T.

The first calls for an appropriation of $7,500 for material for Buffalo Courts and $2,500 for work on the swimming pool in the administration building.

The other appropriation includes $14,798 for this summer's session of W. T.

The appropriation bill for the coming two years is expected to be considered during the coming week. The legislature has two more weeks in the regular session before the reduction of per diem becomes effective, and will likely adjourn about May 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Campbell of Wildorado were guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Flesher.

Legion Dedicates Open of Lodge at Palo Duro Park

A group of 250 dedicated the opening of the lodge at the Palo Duro State Park Monday evening. This was the first entertainment given at the lodge and marks the opening of a season when a number of brilliant dinner parties will be held at the Park.

The Palo Duro Post of the American Legion sponsored this dedication which was attended by a number of Canyon and Amarillo citizens, in addition to the Post members.

Following the chicken barbecue, a short program was given, together with dancing and bridge.

C. L. Thompson, post commander, was in charge of arrangements. J. B. Fowler had charge of the entertainment. On the general committee were: Wes Kleinschmidt, Guy Harp, Allen Farlow, Hud Prichard, J. Madison Daugherty, Roscoe Davis and W. R. Landrum.

Short talks were made by Major E. A. Kingsley, superintendent of the Park, T. C. Thompson, and Mason King of Amarillo.

The lodge will be opened for future programs. Major Kingsley states that it is now about one-fourth completed according to the contemplated plans. During the present work period intensive work will be centered on the lodge with the view of completing the building as soon as possible.

Miss Sadie Kate Bass attended the Dairy Show in Plainview Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ward visited friends in Amarillo Sunday and Monday.

Jack Carr of Bovina visited his wife and family here Sunday.

Contractors From Denton Move Here For Work

30 MEN EMPLOYED

Sixty Working Days to Complete Topping Trail

Topping of Goodnight Trail from Canyon to the Palo Duro State Park was started yesterday by the contractors, Public Construction Company of Denton. G. A. Preslon and R. G. Storrie are here representing the company on this job.

The bid on this job was $39,216.90, calling for a double asphalt topping, the same type as the highways south and west from Canyon. Sixty working days are allowed in the contract for the completion of the contract.

Thirty men are given employment on this contract through the re-employment service as established through the relief office.

Senator Small Is Sponsoring Separate Park Board

Word from Austin indicates that Senator Clint Small will sponsor a bill in the legislature to separate the Palo Duro State Park management from the Texas State Parks Board, with a view of setting up a separate board of directors from this section.

Senator Small points out the fact that several other parks have local management in order to secure more efficiency in looking after park affairs.

No bill has been introduced in the legislature, and the attitude of the National Park Service is unknown as to this movement for a separate set up in the Palo Duro.

Amarillo citizens have taken up this matter with Senator Small, but no action has been taken in Canyon either for or against the proposed change in management.

Wind and Dust Still Hold Sway

Windmill and Tank Completed at Cemetery, Laying Pipe

The new windmill at the Dreamland Cemetery is pumping, and the new storage tank was full of water yesterday, ready for use in irrigation. Pipe is on the ground and the water mains will be laid as rapidly as possible.

All improvements made at the Cemetery through the new Cemetry Association is paid for, but the treasury is depleted, and additional funds are greatly desired in order to keep the work going, stated Mrs. E. D. Harrell, treasurer. A number of pledges have not been paid.

Hundreds of trees and flowers have been set out, and line two drives through the Cemetery.

The next work contemplated is to drag the dirt and sand away from the fences.

A majority of those owning lots in the Cemetery have agreed to the movement to lower the mounds on the graves in order that the lots may be kept in better shape.

The association has voted to extend its thanks to a number of citizens who have assisted in the movement to improve the Cemetery, and named the following: The Canyon News, Woman's Book Club, American Legion, Legion Auxiliary, Commissioners' Court, Chamber of Commerce, and G. M. Stuart.

Mrs. John Knight returned last week from Seymour where she visited in the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Hicks.

S. B. Orton returned Sunday from a trip to Florida and other eastern states.

Judge and Mrs. Burney Slack returned Sunday from Temple.

"Worst Storm Yet" Is Verdict After Blow Sunday

With the exception of Friday and Sunday, the Panhandle has been in the throes of dust storms this week.

However, what was termed the "worst one yet," hit Canyon Sunday night at 8:00 o'clock, following a rather quiet day, covering the county with another blanket of dust. Fortunately the blow did not continue long.

The federal government has set aside a half million dollars for an emergency program of listing to stop the dust in the Panhandle. This is only preliminary to the permanent work of soil erosion, which will be on a much greater basis.

After a comparatively quiet day yesterday, the wind changed to the north in the afternoon and has kept the air full of dust throughout the night.

The weather bureau declares that the dust storms are about over, but no rain is promised before the end of this month, or the first of May.

Young Pupils In Piano Recital at W. T. Studio

An important occasion, and one of delight to performers and parents was the piano recital given in the studio of Miss Pauline Brigham last Tuesday afternoon by very young pupils. Following the program was a short social hour at which Miss Brigham served coffee to the guests.

The numbers played were Ding Dong Bells, Schmidt, by Jean Marie Kleinschmidt and Tom Knighton; March of the Wee Folk, Gaynor, by Peggy Jean Barnard; Mad March Hare, Moneymaker, by T. M. Moore, Jr.; The Woodpecker, Thompson, by Gwynfred Fegel; Moths, Thompson, by Jean Marie Kleinschmidt; Japanese Doll, Peery, and Guitar Serenade, Gaynor, by Shirley Harrell; Spinning Song, McGregor, by Stuart Condron; Vale of Song, Rolfe, by Lynnalee Lockhart; Bounce the Ball, Ketterer by Tom Knighton; Ponies, Rebe, by Marcia Batchedder; Harlequin, Thompson, by Florence Clark; The Streamlet, Risher, by Merrie Lib Duflot; and Rose Pedals, Lawson, by Merrie Lib Duflot and Lynnalee Lockhart.

No Word Received Regarding Work on Men's Dormitory

No word has been received regarding the final approval of the contract for erection of the men's dormitory on the campus of W. T.

The contract was let five weeks ago Tuesday by the Board of Regents, and forwarded to Washington for final approval. It was indicated at that time that work could not start for five weeks, in keeping with a regulation made for all PWA projects.

Dr. J. A. Hill was in Austin Monday where the Board of Regents met to sign the bonds for the addition to Cousins Hall. As soon as the bonds are approved in Washington bids will be called for the erection of this project.

Guests in the home of Misses Bell and Olive Schramm Friday were Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Knoles of Flagstaff, Arizona, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crist of Amarillo.

Mrs. Carl Hair and Mrs. Howard Mahle visited Mrs. Hair's mother in Slaton Wednesday. They were accompanied by Miss Helen Harden and John Guthrie.

FARMERS TO GET CASH TO DO LISTING

10 Cents Per Acre Is Offered For Fuel or Feed

MEETINGS CALLED

Upchurch Makes Statement Regard Plan of Work

By W. H. Upchurch, County Agent

An emergency grant of ten cents per acre is being made by the Government for the temporary phase of an attack on wind erosion. This grant will be made at the rate of ten cents per acre to be applied on listing. It will be disbursed in the form of fuel or feed to farmers for listing the land owned or operated by them.

Applications will be taken thru the County Agent's office, approved by a community committee and the County Agent. This application becomes the authority for the Relief Commission to issue commodity orders. Community committees are being appointed by the County Agent for approving of designated land and eligiblity of farmers to receive the grant.

The method approved will be either solid listing or alternate row listing on every acre on which the ten cent grant is made. In other words, fifty per cent of each and every acre is to be listed.

Where land is owned or operated by persons who are absent or unable to work the land, it may be listed by any temporary operator with the consent of the owner, in which case, the person receiving the grant will be considered as the temporary operator instead of tenant or owner.

The date for completion of program is May first. Farmers agree to work every day, weather permitting, until job is finished.

This entire program is only a temporary phase of a more permanent program to follow and does not involve any procedure except listing at this time. The more permanent phase of this program will provide for moisture conservation and cover crops for erosion control. Details of this program have not been completed and are now in the hands of the

Seven Locations Will Be Offered P. O. Building

Property owners of Canyon will give options to the government on seven locations for the proposed postoffice building. The Chamber of Commerce appointed a location committee composed of Clyde W. Warwick, J. A. Guthrie, W. A. Warren, Henry Bradford, Clarence Thompson and J. J. Walker.

The policy of the committee is to take options upon all property within a reasonable distance of the square which owners may wish to offer as a location. The minimum requirement is 100x140 feet. When the inspector makes his visit and investigation he will be shown the various locations and from those offered will make recommendations, should he approve the building.

No word has been received as to when the inspector will arrive, but all data required will be ready for him when he arrives in the city.

Rooms Sought to Care for Students at Regional Meet

Professor T. M. Moore, who is securing rooms and board for boys and girls and coaches who will be here Friday night and Saturday to take part in the Regional Interscholastic Meet, asks that all persons who wish to have lodgers or boarders those days call him at 37. It is expected that there will be many people in town for Friday night since the contests begin at 9:00 o'clock Saturday morning.

PANHANDLE MEMBER 1933 PRESS ASSOCIATION

At Fort Worth Saturday night certificates of distinguished service in the Democratic party were given to 13 men and 1 woman. President Roosevelt headed the list, the others being Texans. The Governor of Texas and past governors were not included; neither of the United States senators were included; few of the so-called political leaders of the state were included. It is most gratifying to the citizens of Northwest Texas to see that Senator Clint C. Small was included in the list. He was the only man in the list who has ever made the race for governor. The honor extended to Senator Small is completely justified. No man has written so much constructive legislation on the statute books of Texas during so short a period of service as has the Panhandle senator. No man has ever served the state so completely unselfishly as has Senator Small. If the people of Texas had fully appreciated the worth of Senator Small, he would have been honord by election as chief executive. If he decides to accept one of the flattering offers made to him to join a law firm in some other section of the state, it will be the most severe political blow this section has received. There is no other man in the Panhandle who can begin to fill the political shoes of Senator Small.

Governor Allred has finally reached his decision as to the highway commission and has replaced Judge W. R. Ely of Abilene with Harry Hines of Wichita Falls. This comes as a distinct disappointment to half a dozen plainsmen who have been hot on the Governor's trail seeking the position. Regardless of statements made regarding Judge Ely, The News is convinced that his administration has been entirely fair and impartial to this section of the state. There has been a disposition to complain that the Panhandle has not received fair treatment at his hands, and that for this reason a plainsman should replace him. The News is disappointed that the Governor did not see fit to retain Judge Ely in office, although it could hardly be expected—"to the victor belongs the spoils." However, we are not surprised that the Governor finally chose a fellow townsman, instead of coming this far west in making the selection.

According to a statement in the Congressional Record, the World War took the lives of 30,000,000 men and women and cost the nations engaged four hundred billion dollars. Is there any wonder that students in the colleges and universities of the world have decided that they are opposed to war and will not participate in war. The war lords always rely upon the enthusiasm of youth for a scrap when considering war. Of course the youth of any nation may be aroused to fight in a war of defense, but it is well for them to consider the cost which war always heaps upon their shoulders and the terrible loss of life entailed. After all, war is the most foolish method of settling an argument between nations.

The people of Dalhart are greatly alarmed by the report that Amarillo, or a portion of the leaders of that city, are attempting to move the soil erosion headquarters from Dalhart to Amarillo. Unfortunately it is often the selfish interest of the big town which continues to make the big town bigger at the expense of the small town. There are many people in Amarillo who have the correct attitude toward the Panhandle—that this section must grow together if it grows at all; while there are many in Amarillo who cannot see beyond Polk Street, and would kill those institutions which they cannot move to Amarillo.

12,000 lives and twelve billion dollars is the toll extracted annually from the American people by the gangsters. The people of this nation have brought this burden upon themselves, by mollycoddling the criminal. All of us profess to be law abiding citizens until the criminal is caught, and then our sympathy turns to the one who is in the clutches of the law; we turn against the officers who apprehend them; we turn to the criminal lawyers who defend them, and hope that he will find a luckless jury who will free the criminal. This attitude must change before America can hope to recover from the lawless spree.

Most Americans boast of their patriotism, yet a vast majority are entirely ignorant of the institutions and functions of their government. While most European nations go to considerable trouble to train their office holders as to their duties because elevating them to posts of authority, the American way is to select the best hand shaker and back slapper. More attention to training the youth in the principles of government will result in a better government in the years that are to come.

The dust storms of the past two months, and the coming of the soil erosion program forcefully bring to mind the oft repeated warning of the cow men of years ago as they saw the plow breaking up the rich sod of the Panhandle. The poor methods of farming have been deplored by many others, who believed that violence was being done to this section. The seriousness of the present situation may be terminated only by a return of millions of acres to grass.

The Republicans would like to get rid of Hoover, but how are they to do it? As leader of his party, he can get the nomination if he chooses to run. It is hard on Hoover's pride to realize that he was elected by the largest popular majority ever given a president, only to see it reversed against him four years later. No doubt he would like to give the voters another chance just to see if they would not again reverse themselves.

The bootleggers still sell more liquor than the "legitimate" saloons, according to a government report; and drunkenness is on the increase. Yet the people of Texas will be called upon to abolish the state prohibition provision in favor of a system which acknowledges it will produce an increased use of liquor.

Folks certainly are jittery these days. The housewife is upset with cleaning up the home; the business man with trying to keep his store or office clean; and the farmer for the eternal change of real estate.

Automobile owners over the nation are beginning to protest about the high tax on gasoline. While the money was used exclusively for highway purposes the motorist did not object, but now the movement is on to divert much of this money to other funds. In this the car owner has a real kick coming.

A lot of folks cannot understand why rangers should destroy the gambling devices which are found in the high class joints which they raid in the cities of Texas. Perhaps it would be a good idea to slap the gamblers on the wrist and tell them to hereafter be good.

About 10 percent of the auto drivers are the fools who cause most of the accidents and kill most of the people through their careless driving.

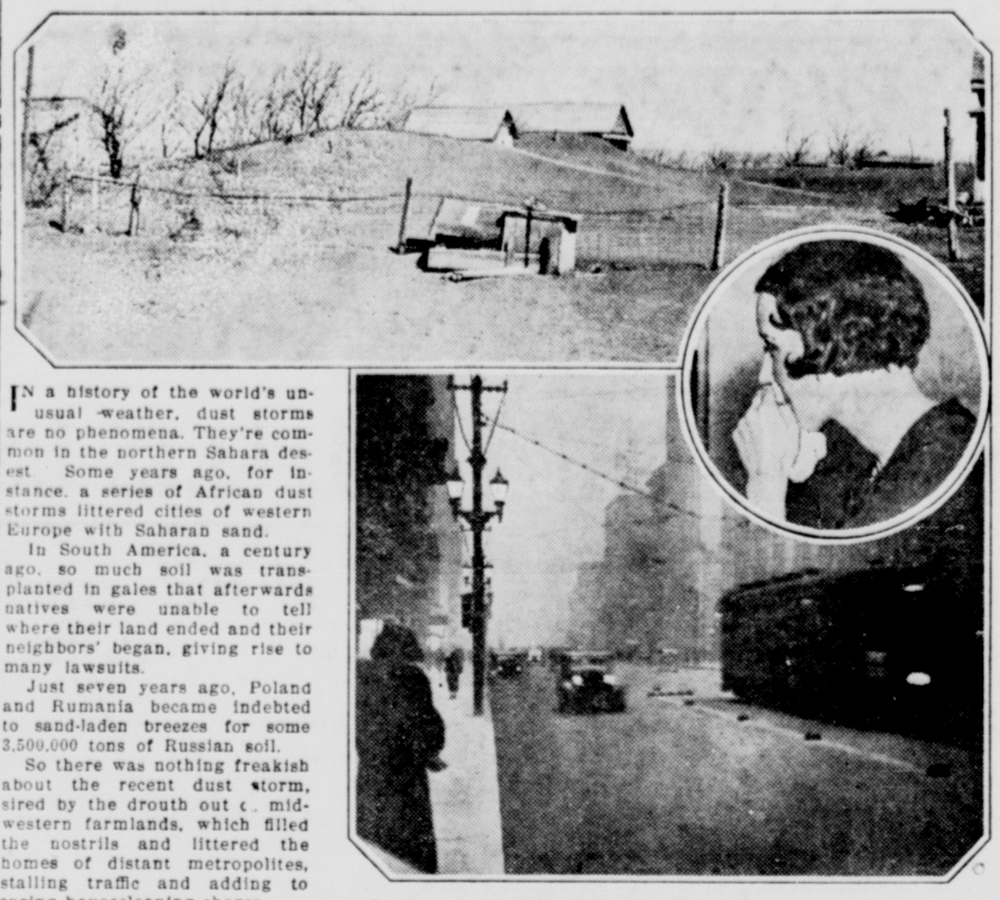
If the lateness of Easter's coming is the cause of dust upheaval this spring, we move that a law be passed abolishing Easter.

Invariably each succeeding dust storm is called the worst of the season. Maybe some of these days we shall have a real one.

Every time Huey gets an idea, a fresh special session of the legislature is called to write it into law.

You may tell a fellow he's in a class by himself and still not be complimenting him any. It all depends on the class.

Dust Storms, Prevalent in Recent Years, Are Grim Portent to Farmer



IN a history of the world's unusual weather, dust storms are no phenomena. They're common in the northern Sahara desert. Some years ago, for instance, a series of African dust storms littered cities of western Europe with Saharan sand.

In South America, a century ago, so much soil was transplanted in gales that afterwards natives were unable to tell where their land ended and their neighbors' began, giving rise to many lawsuits.

Just seven years ago, Poland and Rumania became indebted to sand-laden breezes for some 3,500,000 tons of Russian soil.

So there was nothing freakish about the recent dust storm, sired by the drouth out o. midwestern farmlands, which filled the nostrils and littered the homes of distant metropolites, stalling traffic and adding to spring housecleaning chores.

An annoyance to city dwellers, dust storms are murky terrors to their rural brethren — grim harbingers of disaster and future famine. Increasing frequency in recent years of these hot, dry gales which stripped thousands of tons of fertile topsoil from midwestern farms and scattered it throughout other states has posed an ominous question — "Is the midwest becoming a Sahara?"

THE way was paved for the gray menace by the overproduction of war and post-war years, when turf was removed from great areas and repeated plowing ground the subsoil into powder. Lack of rain did the rest. Hot winds blew over the farmlands, and swept topsoil into dunes on neighboring lands. Eddying winds whirled the soil high into the air, depositing it in far-away states.

But soil conditions are not alone responsible. Statistics show that, over the last 25 years, there has been a steady decline in amount of rainfall. Other research has revealed that periods of heavy precipitation occur in cycles.

So there is the hope that soon the trend toward lighter rainfalls may be reversed; that instead of muttering morosely, "It ain't gonna rain no mo'," farmers will begin "singing in the rain," and that midwestern farm soil will shun its nomadic career and settle down, for a time at least.

YOUR WIFE WILL KNOW why WE BUY FROM WESTERN ELECTRIC

• As the world's best purchasing agent, she applies the same rules of thrifty buying used by the Bell System.

A special study based on 3,000 separate items of telephone equipment and supplies indicates this fact: Western Electric, as supply unit of the Bell System, sells to Bell operating companies for a fourth less, on the average, than the lowest price offered by independent supply firms.

This of course does not mean a saving of a fourth on every item bought from Western Electric. Some supplies... paper, paints, poles, for example... range from 5 to 17 per cent under usual market prices. Others, such as telephones, cables, and switchboards, show similar variations in the amount saved.

But the important point, clearly indicated, is that Western's prices are appreciably lower to us than open market prices.

As one of the 24 associated companies of the Bell System, we buy most of our equipment and much of our supplies from Western because we get bargains there, because we get uniform quality and the assurance of exact performance... and because Western Electric parts are so designed that future improvements and developments will fit into and work with equipment already in use.

These factors help us materially in achieving the Bell System policy of good telephone service at fair cost to the user.

Larger Use of Electricity
(In Kilowatt Hours)

at No Increased Cost
(In Your Monthly Service Bill)

The new "ultimate" rate for residential users and its application enables small users of electric current to enjoy additional benefits at no extra cost, depending entirely on your use of the service. Get what's coming to you. Like benefits are available to larger users. Our suggestion is that you get in touch with our local representative and find out for yourself how you can increase your home lighting and other user. There's plenty in store for you.

The present trend in the country is to bring about the wider use of electricity. It is our candid opinion that every room in the average home has noticeable opportunities for freer use of the present appliances. One of the most outstanding opportunities is in lighting—so often ignored. We cannot emphasize too strongly the values possible under rates now applicable.

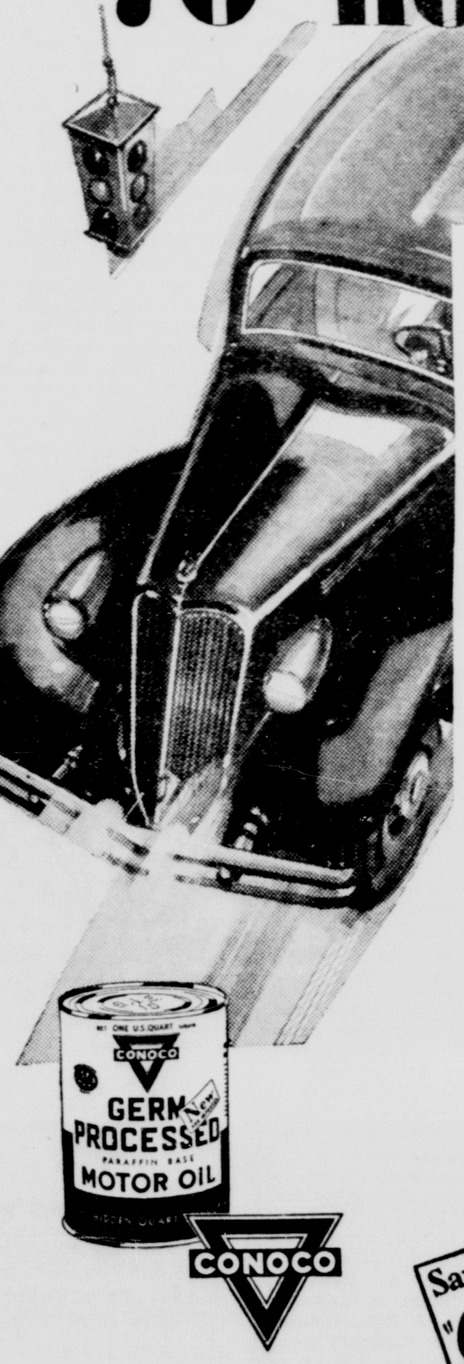
Is Your Car over 70 horsepower?



If it is, you must have motor oil of extra high film strength to get SAFE LUBRICATION

YOUR car today has twice the horsepower and speed of the car you drove ten years ago! The average of 22 leading cars in 1934 was 108 horsepower.

Bearing pressures and temperature have increased correspondingly—so greatly that motor parts are now made of new alloy metals of extra strength and durability to stand the load!

To protect such a motor you need an oil with enough extra oiliness and film strength to withstand the extreme pressures and temperature!

Yet motor oils generally have no more oiliness and film strength now than they had ten years ago. New refining methods have recently come into use to make oils free from carbon and sludge. But these refining processes have lowered instead of increased oiliness and film strength—the very qualities on which depends an oil's lubricating value!

There is one exception—Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. It, too, is free from carbon and sludge troubles. But, more important, the new Germ Process—adding concentrated oily essence to highly refined oil—puts into this oil 2 to 4 times the film strength of any straight mineral oil, as tests on Timken and other machines have proved! That extra film strength gives safe lubrication under the most extreme pressures!

Germ Processed Oil protects your motor another way. Its penetrative film, the "Hidden Quart," stays up in your motor and cuts down starting wear.

Germ Processed Oil gives longer mileage with greater motor protection, as the Indianapolis Destruction Test proved.

Say "O. K.—Drain"—fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and drive with the assurance that your oil meets your motor's needs!

Canyon Rebekah Lodge, 350, met at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening for a brief business session and social hour.

Mrs. Lillian Tate was elected as treasurer to fill the vacancy left by Mrs. Mildred Sullivan.

The Novelty Orchestra furnished music for the evening.

Refreshments of angel food cake, devil food cake and home made ice cream were served the group by Mrs. Myrtle Stratton.

Members and guests present were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hawes, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. McBride, Mrs. Levi Cole, Mrs. Nannie Myers, Mrs. Winnie Gibbs, Mrs. Minnie Laughery, Mrs. Ola Ridgeway, Mrs. Patterson, Misses Tinie Thompson, Columbia Redfearn and Floye Rowe; T. S. Furlow, Bud Rusk, Chas. Stratton and Mrs. Stratton.

MISS WILLIE PIKE CELEBRATES 9th BIRTHDAY

Friday afternoon Mrs. W. D. Pike, assisted by Miss Lucile Davault and Miss Gwendolyn Black entertained little Miss Willie Pike and friends with a party in celebration of Willie's ninth birthday.

Favors of rabbits and baloons were given the children at the refreshment hour when ice cream and angel food cake were served to little Misses Jean Marie Kleinschmidt, Peggy Bishir, Anita Davis, Martha Jane Dowd, Shirley Harrell, Carline Black, Doris Ball; and Frank Sharman, Andy Lee Walsh, Bobby Word, Dickie Woods, Bobby Pope, John James Harter and Earl Lock Neff.

BUNNY PARTY GALA AFFAIR TUESDAY NIGHT

Miss Gwendolyn Black and Miss Ruth Greenfield delightfully entertained friends with a Bunny party at the home of Miss Black Tuesday night, April 16.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with spiraea and lilacs. The hand painted tallies and score cards of bunnies carried out the motif of the bunny party.

Miss Frances Holman received travelling prize and Mrs. J. D. Gamble, Jr., won high bunny score for the evening.

At the refreshment hour the four tables were laid with white covers and centered with tulips and spiraea. A colorful and tasty salad, molded in the form of easter eggs, with smacks and punch, carrying out the color scheme of red and green, was served those seated. Plate favors of bunnies made of cakes and candies were the high note of the party.

Those present were Misses Lenna Foster, Gladys McClanahan, Ann Smith, Frances Holman, Wilmoth Gamble, Erin Gamble and Mrs. Millard Word, Mrs. W. L. Smith, Mrs. J. Madison Daugherty, Mrs. Lee Foster, Mrs. J. D. Gamble, Jr., Mrs. Clyde Davis, Mrs. R. E. Ball, and Mrs. J. D. Barker.

ACTIVITIES AMONG THE H. D. WORKERS

Turning a hobby into money is being done by Mrs. C. G. Stallings, rug demonstrator for the Sunny Hill Home Demonstration Club. She made a profit of $53 on five hooked rugs. The material for these rugs, including thrums, burlap and dye cost $14.

Besides making rugs to sell, Mrs. Stallings has made five rugs for her own home out of old clothes and thrums.

Discarded dresses and shirts are being used to make a braided rug for the bedroom of Leona Sharpes, bedroom demonstrator of the Fairview 4-H Club. Many improvements have already been completed, such as the addition of a new mattress, mattress pad, towels, wash rags, pictures, and linens for the dresser and bedside table. A tufted bedspread iwth rose tufts is being made to help carry out the color scheme of rose and cream.

A cotton hooked rug, 30 inches by 50 inches using the "hit and miss" design, has been made for the bedroom of Evelyn Bauer, bedroom demonstrator for Johnson 4-H Club. Other improvements for the room are linens for the bed, dresser and table; a new mattress, mattress cover, spring cover, and mattress pad.

By adding an extra foot to the length of her clothes closet, Mrs. J. H. Knapp, wardrobe demonstrator of the Garrison Home Demonstration Club was able to install three shelves to be used for folded garments. Other improvements to be made are shoe racks and hat boxes. The boxes were selected because of the unusual amount of dust in this country.

"My friends are constantly telling me that I am improving on my sewing since I became wardrobe demonstrator," says Mrs. Marie Dorman, wardrobe demonstrator of the Zita Home Demonstration Club. Besides planning and making clothing for herself, Mrs. Dorman plans and sews for her children. She is planning to improve her clothes closet by replacing a curtain with a door.

Bermuda onions set out in June supplied fresh green onions all winter for the family of Mrs. L. B. Hammond, Farm Food Supply demonstrator of the Lakeside Home Demonstration Club.

Because of a well planned fall garden, fresh beets, carrots, parsnips, onions and greens were used fresh until the last of January from the garden of Mrs. C. L. Gordon-Cummings, Farm Food Supply demonstrator of the West Side Home Demonstration Club.

To carry out the plans made for her garden 70 feet by 119 feet, Viola Bedenk, garden demonstrator of Umbarger 4-H Club, has planted 1025 onion plants and sets, 80 strawberry plants, 98 cabbage, 6 rhubarb roots, 5 horse radish plants and 300 feet of English peas. Viola helped work into the soil 4 wagon loads of fertilizer. She made and watered the rows well before planting the seed.

Miss Cellistine McGee of Los Angeles, California, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. McGee.

Miss Ruth Elliston of Hereford is visiting in the J. B. Elliston home this week.

J. W. Shanklin returned from Portales Sunday where he has been attending to business.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR THOMAS HAROLD THOMPSON

Monday was the 7th birthday of Thomas Harold Thompson, and his mother, Mrs. Clarence Thompson, gave a party for him and his little friends.

Games were played throughout the afternoon by the little folks, and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to those present.

Guests were: Thomas Harold Thompson, honoree, little Misses Anna Lee Newlin, Jane Campbell, Jean Smith, Ellen Sanders, Mary Ann Bellah, Marilyn Janakin, Beatrice Clark, Ben Carolyn Dunaway, Frances Alice Harp, Ruth Thompson, Barbara and Phillis White, Billie Lee Parker.

1925 CLUB ENTERTAINED BY MRS. W. L. PEARSON

Tulips, spiraea and lilacs furnished the attractive decorations when Mrs. W. L. Pearson entertained the 1925 Club at her home Wednesday afternoon.

The spring motif was carried out in the tallies used for the four tables of bridge.

A tasty salad course was served at the tea hour to Mrs. W. A. Warren, Mrs. J. L. Duflot, Mrs. Rsocoe Davis, Mrs. Hud Prichard, Mrs. J. Madison Daugherty, Mrs. J. J. Walker, Mrs. C. M. Presley, Mrs. G. A. Farlow, Mrs. H. W. Hartman, Mrs. George Nance, Mrs. Jim Rose, Mrs. W. E. Miller, Mrs. Harry Wood, Mrs. R. N. Barnett, Mrs. Joe Black, and Mrs. M. S. Bishir.

SENIOR BRIDGE-DANCE GALA SPRING SOCIAL

Last Saturday night the members of the Senior class and friends enjoyed a dance to the music of Peggy's Rhythm Girls.

The girls gym in the Administration Building was elaborately and beautifully decorated in red and white streamers, making an appropriate setting for the gala occasion.

Bridge was enjoyed by many and this part was held in Dean Green's office. Punch was served throughout the evening.

Faculty guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Sheffy and class sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Meyer.

MRS. CLYDE McELROY HAS AS YOU LIKE IT CLUB

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Clyde McElroy entertained members of the As You Like It Club at her home 1008 Fifth avenue.

Several vases of spring flowers furnished the attractive decorations in the entertaining rooms where contract bridge was played throughout the afternoon.

A salad course was served to those seated, including: Mrs. N. E. McIntire, Mrs. D. M. Stewart, Mrs. C. M. Presley, Mrs. A. W. Sternenberg, Mrs. Wm. Ash, Mrs. T. M. Moore, Mrs. J. J. Walker, Mrs. F. E. Savage, Mrs. John Fry, Mrs. L. Angel and Mrs. W. C. Black.

BULL-SIMMONS WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Friends of Miss Madelyn Bull and Max Simmons were surprised this last week to hear of their secret marriage Wednesday evening at Happy. Rev. Raney officiated.

Mrs. Simmons is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Bull of Canyon. She was a member of the freshman class at W. T. the first part of this year, but has since been working at M. E. Moses Company.

Max Simmons is from Wellington, and is a member of the Junior class. He will continue in school during this term.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Wester and family have recently moved from their farm south of Canyon to the Roffey place north of town.

METHODIST LADIES HAVE SOCIAL TUESDAY

Mrs. D. A. Nicholas, Miss Belle Schramm and Mrs. L. J. McGehee were hostesses Tuesday afternoon to the ladies Missionary Society of the Methodist Church at the Nicholas home, 1403 Sixth avenue, when the society met in its regular monthly social.

Bouquets of tulips and lilacs were appropriately placed to carry out the Easter motif.

At the conclusion of the scheduled program conducted by Mrs. R. E. Foster, a salad course with hot tea was served by the hostesses. During the refreshment hour Miss Olive Schramm rendered three vocal numbers.

Those guests and members present were: Mrs. C. M. Dowlen, Mrs. F. M. Munson, Mrs. Clyde McElroy, Mrs. I. C. Jenkins, Mrs. J. O. Quattlebaum, Mrs. A. W. Sternenberg, Mrs. Hastings, Mrs. F. M. Faulkner, Mrs. R. E. Foster, Mrs. Joe Thompson, Mother Collins, Mrs. B. F. Otis, Mrs. Elizabeth Fry Page, Mrs. B. B. Cluck, Mrs. A. M. Smith, Mrs. M. C DeGraffenried, Mrs. F. M. Wilson, and the hostesses.

W. T. Orchestra In Concert With Tri-State Group

Wallace R. Clark was director of the Tri-State Orchestra which gave a program at the Tri-State Music Festival at Carlsbad Saturday. The orchestra was composed largely of the W. T. orchestra, with additional musicians from Roswell and Lubbock.

W. T. Pictures Are Shown Before the Rotary Club

Travis Shaw, motion picture photographer, showed several reels of pictures that he had taken in recent months at the luncheon of the Canyon Rotary Club Tuesday. Various activities of W. T. were shown in the reels which were presented.

The club voted $35 to Levi Cole to carry on the Boy Scout work, which is sponsored by the club.

Irby Carruth was elected delegate from the club to the district convention at Midland.

Visitors present were: Tom Nabors of Plainview, Fred Brian, Dick Ford, Chancelor Wymouth, Ross Rogers and Ben Anderson, all of Amarillo.

Students Write Ranch Histories

Members of the Texas History class of Professor L. F. Sheffy are compiling histories of ranches in this surrounding district. Many of the ranches which are being written upon have brands on the entrance of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum. Questionnaires are being sent to pioneers and old settlers in the Panhandle ranching region to locate new material and to ascertain certain facts about the origin of the ranches, who founded them, how their brands were derived, and what the present status of the ranch is.

Much available material is in the museum library, and it has been placed at the disposal of the students by Mr. Sheffy.

After these ranch histories are completed as much as possible, they will be placed in the museum library, and some of the best ones will be published in the historical review.

Palo Duro Peeps

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Boehning, formerly of this community, are the proud parents of a son, born Friday, April 5. He has been named Richard Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Campbell and family and O. D. Bragg and family spent Sunday in the Sherman Campbell home.

Miss Hilda Miller underwent an appendicitis operation at the St. Anthony's Hospital Sunday afternoon. She is recovering nicely.

Miss Eva Campbell spent Sunday night in the R. H. Campbell home.

Mrs. Walter Boehning entertained the Palo Duro Club Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Leseberg, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Leseberg, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tucek were dinner guests in the C. W. Bauer home at Happy Sunday.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Easter Sunday evening at 8 p. m. moving pictures of the Easter story will be shown at the Presbyterian Church. These pictures will depict the story of the empty tomb, the appearances of Jesus to the disciples. The scene of the "Upper Room," with the disciples on the shore of Galilee, are all made to live for us.

The picture leaves one with the positive feeling that Jesus is risen, and is with us always. "Lo, I am with you always."

The picture machine will be operated by Mr. Travis Shaw. The evening service will be held in the basement of the Church. Please come on time.

Everything for the office at Warwick's.

Representative Of Dupont Company Inspects Paint Test

Mr. J. W. Illif, head of the Experimental Paint Testing Laboratories of the E. I. Dupont Company in Philadelphia, spent three days here last week looking over that company's experimental station located on the West Texas State Teachers College farm. The local experiment is being directed by Dr. C. A. Pierle, head of the Chemistry Department of Canyon College, and is being conducted in connection with that department.

Apparatus includes a number of rows of painted board plates which are placed so as to get maximum weathering, and a painted fence, all on the farm, and ten newly painted residences in Canyon. In the case of the latter, the company furnishes the paint and the property owners applied it. The farm station has been tended by college boys since its installation about five years ago. Harold Lair of Canyon is tender of the station this year. James Davis, also of Canyon, will hold that position next year.

Mr. Illif was pleased with the progress of the local experiment and stated that the work will go on until the most durable set of paints for this region is found.

Johnston Exhibits Fossils at Historical Group Meet

Representative of work being done by Prof. C. S. Johnston are several fossil remains of mastodons and elephants now on display in the basement of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

These fossils were placed on display shortly before the annual meeting of the Historical Society held here last week. They consist of the lower jaw of a shovel-jawed mastodon found near Clarendon, elephant teeth, leg bones of elephants, and a huge tusk of a mastodon.

Illustrative of the manner which fossils are prepared for exhibit is a sand table, cement and other materials used in preparing prehistoric remains in which this section of the Panhandle abounds. On the table, along with the materials used, are several pieces of a rhinoceros skull excavated near Clarendon.

MAVERICK CLUB

NUMBER TWO
Canyon, Texas
By Pat Noser

Our club is in the throes of a heated political campaign. We are adherents of the two party system, but we believed that the Republican party had died out, and instead of rubbing it in, we started out with two new parties.

The two leading parties in our government are the citizens party and the independent party. Minor parties have not shown much strength yet.

Each party has its bosses, campaign managers, ward-heelers, hand shaking politicians, and all the fixtures.

Hal Gamble is campaign manager of the citizens party, while Joe Patterson captains the independents. They are doing all the underwork. This afternoon at our regular meeting time, the final political meeting is to be the order of the day, and every candidate will have an opportunity to speak for the last time or have a campaign manager speak for him. Please don't bring any tomatoes, potatoes, or other fruit of the garden, as I may be one of the speakers.

The citizens party offers as its candidates, Jack Taylor for president; Darwin Dobbs for vice president; Luke Miller for secretary; Herbert Moriner for treasurer; and Charles Gerald for chief of police.

On the other side of the ballot the independents offer Wilbert Johnson for president; Earle Whitley for vice president; J. D. Roberts for secretary; Johnnie McBroom for treasurer; and Robert Matlock for chief of police.

Charles Gerald is the only favorite established in the race this early. His name shows that he has character and he has more freckles even than Jimmie Taylor, chief of police of the Amarillo club.

All this week the managers will be working for votes by all of the various and dubious means, and Friday, the general election will be held.

One watcher from each party will be in charge of the ballot boxes to prevent any machine gun politics, and any accidental errors in the tabulating of the results.

The election judges are escorted by a body guard from each party, and every thing's merry.

Don't any of you Mavericks forget your poll tax receipts better known as your membership cards, or you won't be allowed to vote.

We have some real orators in our club, and you should see them fighting for votes. We are prejared for some gang fights tomorrow and any rushing of the ballot boxes. So don't forget election day.

Tuesday night we got a little revenge on the Maverick Club No. 1 in our weekly fight program at the CCC camp. Every week we get the best of them, but you must pin a man to get a decision, which is a little hard to do. However we won a clean-cut decision over them last time. Robert Matlock is the cream of the crop.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR EASTER SERVICES

On next Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock hour, Amarillo Commandery, No. 48, Knights Templar will observe Easter Services with the First Presbyterian Church, Canyon. There will be special music and Rev. Chas. L. Dickey, pastor, will preach. A number of Knights will attend from Amarillo, Hereford, Tulia, and other surrounding towns. All local Templars are expected, and Masons urged to attend this service.

After the services, a basket dinner will be spread in the basement of the Church by Knights Templar, Masons, and their families.

FATAL ERRORS IN DRIVING

Traffic accidents were more numerous and more severe in 1934 than any previous year.

Eight of the worst driving mistakes responsible for last year's tragic record are listed by the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters as follows: (1) Driving too fast for conditions, a cause named specifically in 22 per cent of all accidents resulting in fatalities charged to drivers alone, and a distinct and sometimes controlling factor in accidents attributed to many other causes. (2) Driving on the wrong side of the road. (3) Failing to signal or signalling improperly. (7) Driving off roadway. (8) Reckless driving.

Pedestrians made fatal errors, too. Four of the worst were: (1) Crossing between intersections, a mistake that accounted for more than 25 per cent of all pedestrian fatalities. (2) Crossing against the signal light at intersections. (3) Playing in the street, an error made chiefly by children, resulting in 16 per cent of all pedestrian deaths. (4) coming from behind parked car.

Motorists and pedestrians! Avoid these fatal errors in 1935—and you will be doing your part to reduce the traffic toll.

When a fellow claims that "all men have their price," it is possible that he is only throwing out a feeler for his.

THE EAGLE'S TALE

VOLUME NO. 9 | CANYON, TEXAS, APRIL 18, 1935. | NUMBER 31

Well, how did you like the sandstorm Sunday night? I heard Bill Cone say it was the worst sand storm he had seen in forty years. Some of the Canyon High students must not have seen as many years as Mr. Cone, for some of them thought it was the judgment day. Carolyn Mayfield Jack Taylor, Loura Ferne Brian and Kenneth Black ran for the nearest church, which happened to be the Baptist Church.

I thought the weather had about drowned all love in C. H. S., but Sunday I changed my mind. I was riding down the street on Israfel and who should I see but Yvonne Thomas and Jackie Moore walking right down the middle of the sidewalk. I was so embarrassed!

How many of you saw the coronation of the queen last Friday night? Those were the prettiest girls I ever seen. At first I though I was dreaming or something. I've been to Canyon High School several times, but really I'd never seen the girls dressed like that before.

I saw Kenneth Black in town the other day. I'll bet he's proud to be home and walking again. Some of the girls sure was glad to see him; especially one of the ex-students, and she seemed to like it fine.

It sure seems funny to me when one person is absent from school, two or three are. I wonder what kind of sickness Jack Taylor, Pat Cox, and Hal Gamble had Monday.

Would some kind soul ask Kate Donnell what she is doing in the third period study hall every morning when she should be in music. It couldn't possibly be that she and Mrs. Barker don't get along so good.

Monday morning it seemed as though we had two new janitors. I found out that Les Lisle and James Hill were janitoring out of the kindness of their hearts for 30 cents an hour.

Well, since Sunday is Easter, I have to run down town and buy Mariah a new Easter bonnet, so

I'll be seeing you—

Cactus Cal.

SENIORS, ARE YOU PREPARED?

In less than a month, seniors, you will have completed eleven years of preparation. What are you capable of doing?

Do you feel prepared to meet the business world? Have you formed sound, well-balanced principles of character that will fit you to be even a real student in college?

Most people make the same kind of a business manager and citizen as they are students. What can you do?

JUNK PILE OR GIRLS LOCKER?

Tennis shoes and gym suits scattered everywhere; lockers half open with books and articles of clothing half way in and half way out, manual training projects up-side-down on top of the lockers; and paper sacks and other rubbish along the window sills!

This is the untidy picture presented to the eyes as one steps into the girls' locker room. You might do well to wonder what might not be cleaned out of your lockers.

Who knows but that the pen or book or gym suit you've been calling lost, strayed, and mostly stolen is somewhere under the debris.

What's more appropriate than a good spring cleaning?

Miss Lois Goodrich spent Saturday night and Sunday in Dumas.

EAGLES TAKE TRACK HONORS IN MEET SAT.

ELLISON WINS 880 YARD RUN; RELAY TEAM SECOND; LITTLE GETS SECOND IN ESSAY CONTEST

The Canyon Public School athletes and literary contestants were honored by winning several places in the District Interscholastic League Meet held here and in Amarillo last Friday and Saturday.

The following were entered in literary events:

One-act Play: Cast: Mary May Harrison, Jack Taylor, and Jack Oldham, placed third.

Declamations: Junior High, Marielle Oldham; Senior High, Margaret Nicholas; Grade School, Mary Lou Barnett, who placed second in the finals.

Typing: Lorene Bessire and Jack Oldham.

Essay Writing: Junior High, Polly Little who placed second; Senior High, Irene Thompson.

At the track and field division of the meet the Dumas Demons emerged from the meet winners with 40 points and were followed by Tulia with a total of 30 points.

The Canyon team placed fifth in the meet with contestants from nine towns of this district.

Five of the Eagle cinder men will participate in the regional meet to be held here next Friday and Saturday. Curtis Ellison, running under the purple and white, won the 880 yard run with a time of 2:13.4. The one mile relay team composed of Curtis Ellison, Cecil O'Donald, Jack Middleton, and Hampton Lisle, won the right to enter the regional meet by placing second, following Amarillo. Sewel Cox tossed the shot put 39 feet and 3 inches for a fourth place which qualifies his participation in the regional meet.

Sixth Grade Class Makes Own Books

The members of the sixth grade reading classes are learning the fundamentals of making books by making books of their own.

Their text, the "Science Reader," takes up books and printing since the earliest days. The members of the class are making small books of their own and following the principals followed in commercial book binding.

The books contain poems, that are favorites, autographs, and various other material.

Four Basketball Sweaters Arrive

Four basketball sweaters were received Monday. The boys receiving sweaters are: Lawrence Fulton, Jack Taylor, Wesley Cox, and Thomas Harris.

The sweaters are of the slip-over style; two are white with purple letters, and two are northwestern purple with white letters.

Curtis Ellison and O. M. Solomon also lettered, but did not receive sweaters because they got football awards, and only one sweater is given each person by the school.

SCHOOL, THE STUDENT'S RULER

(With all apologies to David)

The school is my ruler;
I cannot leave.
It maketh me to lie down late at night.
It leadeth me into hard duties.
It taketh all my fun.
It guideth me in paths of vocations for my life's work.
Yea, though I walk through the halls of the building of learning,
I will fear the teachers; for they art near me;
With rules and with books, they comfort me.
They prepare more lesson plans for me in the presence of mine old ones;
They have crammed my head with knowledge,
My mind runneth over.
Surely books and teachers will follow me all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of learning forever.

—Jewel Chambers.

Student Bemoans Woes of Typing Test

Punch thou not without thy rhythm,
A typing test is not a scream
And naught but pain ye find with 'em,
All things are not as they seem.

A test is hard, a test is hateful
And a 28 (words per minute) is no goal,
But it seems every error is fateful:
A disdaining mark upon your soul.

In the 15 minutes of the battle,
Meet not thy typewriter's every whim,
Make the keys like dumb driven cattle;
Be yourself a hero grave and grim.

I walked into the hall of typing. There they stood: row upon row of them: machines upon which fools like me were to punch out their fate. All the desks were seemingly filled, because I was about 15 minutes late. The instructor handed out the paper and the tests. When I saw it, I felt like a hungry dog that had been given a rubber bone. After three or four rounds of the key-board, so loud that everyone stopped and stared, the instructor said that the time was now at hand.

Like a prelude to a mass cat fight on a tin-roof, she wound up the clock and hollered "go!" Then the fight began, all for one and everyone for himself. The last incident I remember was when the slightly hefty maiden to the north-west dropped a piece of paper which flitted under my desk. Poor ungallant me; I didn't stop to pick it up; she uttered a slight oath and started on another piece of paper.

When the battle cleared, at the gong of the alarm clock, there was a total of one wrecked typewriter, one table burnt to the floor by the friction, and a number of human wretches with frazzled hair and weakened hearts.

Pope Tells Pre-War Experiences To History Class

Prin. John B. Pope talked to Miss Jewel Foster's World History Class last Monday about his adventures in Europe immediately before the World War in 1914. The class has been studying the causes of the war.

After graduating from Harvard, Mr. Pope and one of his friends went to Europe on a recreational trip. They landed in Liverpool, England. After a tour of Scotland, they returned to London. Here they watched with interest the manoeuvers of the English Fleet which practiced on the north seas at stated intervals. England seemed peaceful; no troops were moving about. In France also no signs of war were in evidence upon their arrival, but later the clouds of war descended upon this country.

War Evident

Upon leaving France, they travelled to Belgium and found signs of war quite evident. On all the trains of cars, troops were everywhere.

War was declared on France by Germany, and every railroad, road, and street was full of troops in Belgium. The American consul told Mr. Pope and his friends while in Rotterdam, that he would give them twenty-four hours to get out of Belgium. They left Belgium the next day at noon and went to England. While on the boat in crossing the North Sea, the captain of the ship pointed out to them German submarines.

After landing, they went to London by rail and there tried to enlist in the British Army, but without becoming British citizens, could not.

Warned In London

On the night of their arrival in London, the British government had told the people if there should be a red light in the Parliament house, it would signify that war would be declared on Germany. Men gathered around the parliament building to await the signal, and when it was given they cheered and began to march around the square. There was much excitement in Scotland Yards with many men trying to enlist.

Sailed for Home

They decided to leave England and because of shortage of money had to travel third passage on a steamer to America. It was somewhat dirty, and they were sick most of the way home.

At nights, no lights were allowed on the decks; men were not even allowed to smoke.

Mr. Pope said, "Warlike activity was conspicious by its absence. The people did not know what was at hand. The policy of 'open covenant openly arrived at' would would make such situations impossible."

Press Club Stunt Wins At Annual Stunt Night Friday

The Press Club won first place for the best stunt with an outdoor burlesque, "The Supreme Sacrifice" at the annual Stunt Night last Friday. The high school queen, Mary Jean Mickle, was crowned in a beautiful ceremony which climaxed the program.

These five stunts were given: A Library Scene by the Library Staff; Weary Willies, students of 4A; The Supreme Sacrifice, Press Club; Love in the Park, Home Economics Club, and Footlight Parade by the Pep Squad. The Footlight Parade included dances to these songs, "China Town," "On the Good Ship Lolly Pop," "Glow Worm," "When I Grow Too Old to Dream," "Mr. and Mrs. Is the Name," and "Turkey in the Straw."

The big event of the evening was the crowning of the queen. Mary Jean Mickle, senior candidate, was crowned by the master of Ceremonies, Bob Orton. Her escort was Curtis Ellison.

The princesses and princes were: freshmen, Natalie Flesher and Jackie Moore; sophomore, Carolyn Mayfield and John B. Pope III; junior, Ruby Guthrie and Jack Neil Jennings.

The flower girls and boys were: Ellen Sanders, Ben Carolyn Dunaway, Thomas Harold Thompson, and Earl Lock Neff. Ruth Price was crown-bearer. Houston Bright sang two songs, "Lindy Lou," and "Rose and a Sunbeam." Lynette Cain danced before the queen.

The winning stunts were given to first, Press Club; second Home Economics Club; and third, Pep Squad. The first prize was $2.50 and second prize $1.00.

Miss Nell McNeeley was director of the "Footlight Parade," to whom the Pep Squad is greatly indebted.

Children's Clothing New Unit Studied By Home Ec. II

The Second Year Home Economics Classes are studying a new unit on children's clothing. Mrs. Bill Smith, Edna Lois Cone, and Patsy Chambers have given demonstrations to the classes.

Mrs. Smith brought a number of her small boy's clothing, and while showing them to the students, gave their good and bad qualities. Her information was based on the practical experience she has obtained through selecting clothes for her young son.

Edna Lois Cone and Patsy Chambers brought several of their play dresses and modeled them for the classes. The students compared these with the standards they had set up for children's clothing.

The senior football team will not play the '35 Eagles on Friday because the winners in the district meet will not be able to compete in both the regional meet and the game.

The freshmen girls played the seventh grade in a post-season game. It looks as though the interest in basketball has not died out although the district track meet has been held.

About the district meet: Curtis Ellison, Canyon 880 yard runner, has been picked by many to represent this region at the state meet to be held in Austin, May 3 and 4.

The relay team placed a close second, but won the right to compete in the region.

BARNETT PLACES SECOND IN JUNIOR DECLAMATIONS

Mary Lou Barnett took second place in Junior Girls' Declamation at the district meet held in Amarillo last Saturday.

By winning second place Mary Lou Barnett is entitled to declaim at the Regional Meet. For winning this place she will receive a silver medal.

Extracts From The Exchange

The Abilene Battery waxes loquacious over hot shots in history. This time the victim was Easter: "Over in England, the people used to eat in church and then get up and go around kissin' ever'body.

"But in the days of Hector or Hooey, it all winds back to the same thing—new duds.

George Terry in The Wolverine, asks a few scorchers on finding common sense education:

"Do you like school?

Are you above or below the average?

Do you make marks above or below average?

Do you like to read and do you read a lot?

Do you notice any mistakes in what you read.

Do you look up anything on your own initiative?"

Answer those if you're broad-minded.

And then Dean White of "The Lasso" philosophizes:

"Don't save on necessities to waste on foolishness.

Listening constantly to a fool increases your capacity for ignorance."

STUDENTS ASSIST JANITOR

Because of the extra work to the janitors caused by the sandstorms, two high school boys have been given work as janitors in the grade and high school buildings. Leslie Lisle and James Hill, who have been engaged, will continue work through the sandstorm season.

The school board has hired and will pay the boys.

The following teachers judged in Amarillo Saturday: Misses Lois Goodrich, Mattie Jordan, Jewel Foster, Fannie Sue Brasuel, Ruth Greenfield, and Prin. John B. Pope.

Jewel Chambers visited with her sister, Mrs. Pat Patterson of Hereford, last week-end.

Mildred Shuman and Thelma Bryant spent Friday afternoon in Amarillo.

Mary Collins spent Sunday visiting her sister, Mrs. Terrell Christian of Claude.

Girl Debaters Lose To Amarillo Team In District Finals

Canyon High School's girls' debate team lost to Amarillo with a three to two decision in the finals in the District Interscholastic League Meet, Saturday in Amarillo. The boys' team lost to the Amarillo squad in the semi-finals.

The girls, Mary Ella Lowe, and Rubye Foster, won unanimous decisions from Hereford and Dimmitt. Both times, they presented the affirmative case. The boys, Robert Orton and Hal Gamble, won a decision from Friona when they presented the negative side.

The question for debate was, "Resolved: That the government should own and operate all electric light and power utilities." Eight girls' teams and seven boys' teams debated at the Interscholastic League Meet.

Prin. John B. Pope has been coach of the debaters. Because of the work he has had, he has not been able to spend much time with them. S. B. Orton and Bob Orton have taken an active part in assisting the debaters. Mr. Orton took the teams on six trips and helped in getting material for their speeches.

Pool Is Elected Pres. Ex-Eagles

The Ex-Eagles met Wednesday night, April 10th and organized an Ex-Eagle Club for a two-fold purpose, to boost Eagle athletics and to bring the Ex-Eagles together for business and socials.

John Russell Pool was elected president of the club; Robert Black vice president, and Broughton Harden, secretary and treasurer. An executive meeting was held last night to draw up a constitution and by-laws for the organization.

Kenneth Black returned from Mineral Wells where he has been taking treatment for rheumatism for the past six weeks.

Mrs. Merle Fowler spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Ola Beeson, teacher of 2A and 2C.

Frances Campbell of Amarillo spent the week-end with Billie B. Flesher.

Miss Lenna Foster was in Amarillo Saturday.

Hundred and Seventy Eyes Surprised As Day Dawns Clear

The day dawned! One hundred and seventy-three pairs of Canyon High School eyes glanced painfully at their window shades. With shaking knees and heaving breasts they pulled the cord, shook out the dust, and then closed their eyes.

A gasp of surprise, an exclamation of disbelief and then a long-drawn-out sigh of pleasure—Sunday had dawned clear.

Incidentally, as a little surprise from the heavenly host, it stayed clear for approximately thirteen and three-fourths hours!

Miles Standish Presented Wed.

All Classes Work To Make Money

Box suppers and parties were the prevailing methods used to make money by the various classes in the recent queen contest.

The juniors' box supper was held Friday, April 5, and the sophomores' last Tuesday. The senior and sophomore classes had parties Thursday night and put the money received from the admission charge in their funds for the queen.

Three of the classes made and sold candy. Senior girls sold Wednesday and Thursday at noon. Sophomore girls sold Thursday noon, and junior girls Wednesday and Thursday nights in front of the Olympic Theater.

Junior and senior boys sold coat hangers Thursday afternoon, and a benefit dance for the seniors was held at Kenneth Cayton's home Wednesday night. Donations were also received by most of the classes.

Helen Johnson returned to school Monday after several days illness.

Students Observe Pan-American Day In Assembly Thurs.

The Spanish Department gave a Pan-American program in Assembly, April 11. Pan-American Day is observed annually in America, on April 14th.

Mary May Harrison gave two piano solos, "In a Little Spanish Town," and "Romona." Short talks were given by the following people: "Pan-Americanism," Irene Thompson; "Facts that are Little Known to the World," John B. Pope III; "Economic Gifts of South America," C. L. Drummond.

Jimmy Ortiz, Spaniard of Santa Fe, attending W. T. S. T. C., gave a short history of the founding of Santa Fe. He told some of the habits of the Spanish people, and showed some very interesting jewelery that he had made. He also told how they made the jewelry. Mr. Ortiz concluded his talk by telling the assembly that he had often been asked if he thought in English or Spanish. He said, "I think in English in all my studies because I can think faster, but I think in Spanish when boxing, or I get hit too hard."

The last thing on the program was "America the Beautiful" sung in Spanish by 12 girls of the Spanish Department.

Carolyn Mayfield, Billy Greenfield, Evelyn Cluck, and Mary Collins spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. J. A. Edwards.

Baggett Ready for Great Plains Meet Here on April 27

One of the largest collection of medals to be assembled at one tme since the passage of the gold embargo act will be awarded as prizes to the speedsters of the Panhandle in the twelfth annual Great Plains Meet at the West Texas State Teachers College, Saturday, April 27th.

Forty-four gold medals and three large silver cups have been gathered by Coach Al Baggett, director of the meet. This year's contest marks a revival of the meet after a lapse of four years, and several new features have been added.

There will be a division for college teams, as usual. However, for the first time there will be a separate division for junior colleges and freshmen, and a division for high schools. Junior colleges and high schools have competed in the meet a few times before, but the junior colleges had to compete with the four-year schools, while the high schools had just a few special events instead of a full schedule of competition.

Gold medals will be given to first place winners in all events in all divisions; gold medals will be awarded to the individual high scorers in each division; and silver cups will be awarded to the team with the high score in each division.

April 27th falls on the week-end between the regional meet and the high school state meet of the Interscholastic League, and will give the coaches an opportunity to test their men on the only cinder track in West Texas against some real competition just before going to Austin.

There is no entry fee but entries must be in by Wednesday, April 24th.

Preliminaries and finals will all be run off the same day. Preliminaries will begin Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock, with the finals scheduled to begin at 2:00 o'clock.

Ninety-One Seniors To Graduate Here

Ninety-one members of the senior class will be eligible for graduation this spring. This is an increase of eight over last year's class, which had only eighty-three members.

Of this ninety-one, fifty-eight have paid for their diplomas, and seventy-three have ordered caps and gowns.

Lessons Are Fish for Them

At their "college," on display at the San Diego exposition, these seals are excellent students, for several reasons. Instead of good marks, they get appetizing fish. And if they don't study hard and become vaudeville actors, they'll end up as fur coats.

Seniors Will Give College New Bulletin Board

A mahogany fronted bulletin board was the gift which the senior class decided to make to the college in its meeting Thursday morning. The case is designed to match the trophy case now in the main corridor; it was a gift of the class of 1934.

John A. Gillis, head of the Manual Arts Department, is making the case, and it is thought that it will be complete by the time of graduation of the class.

The case is to have approximately six divisions with glass doors which will be locked. An appropriate carved design will appear on the mahogany front.

Announcement was also made about the senior party which occurred Saturday evening as well as about other very important senior business.

SAND CONQUEROR OF SCHEDULED MEETS

Sand has proved to be the conqueror of the West Texas State Teachers College track team on two occasions the past week. One dual meet was scheduled with Texas Tech in Canyon and another in Lubbock, but terrific sand storms necessitated the calling off of both contests.

Buff tracksters now have their minds and efforts set on the Great Plains Meet which will be held in Canyon, April 27th.

Condron Talks to Gathering D. A. R. Held Last Week

S. H. Condron, Head of the Department of Government and Economics of West Texas State Teachers College, made an address at the April meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution of Amarillo and Canyon Monday afternoon, April 8.

The meeting was a combined affair and was held in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum here. The subject of Mr. Condron's address was "The Contribution of Washington to the Development of a National Unity."

"While Washington's leadership was far reaching in the field of military attainments, perhaps his next greatest attainment was to develop a spirit of fellowship among the American states," Mr. Condron pointed out.

The speaker traced Washington's career and declared that the great historian's chief objective seemed to be to show the need of drawing the colonies closer together. In a talk with Lafayette, Washington said that he thought the world would ultimately be drawn together as a world organization because of the result of commerce, Mr. Condron pointed out.

Sunny Hill News

Sunday night brought the worst dirt storm of the year. Wheat is dying because of so much electricity.

Miss Nancy Williams, representative of the White King soap company, met with the Sunny Hill club women Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. B. Knox.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ellis and children and Miss Mary Ann Peters were Amarillo visitors Monday.

Thirty seven attended Sunday school and church at Sunny Hill Sunday afternoon. Visitors included Rex Roby of Canyon and Elvin Wesley of the Fairview community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Peters and Misses Roberta Campbell and Mary Ann Peters were guests in the Henry Ellis home Sunday night.

Miss Campbell and her pupils are planning to have a program and an egg hunt Friday afternoon.

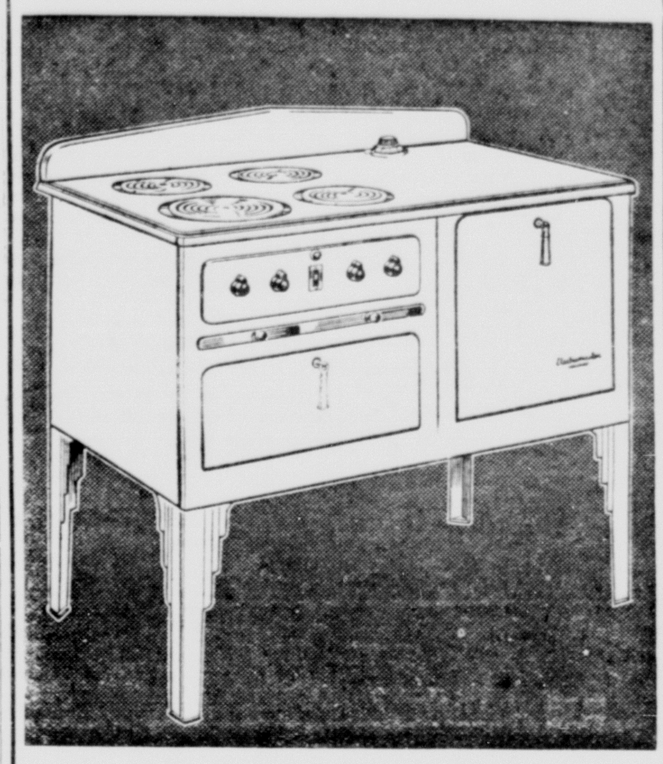
Personality Plus

Did you ever have the feeling that rooms have "personalities?" There are kitchens, for instance, that frown darkly and say, "Stay out as long as you can; your hours here are sure to be tedious, unpleasant."

The New Waldorf---

possesses every feature that lends attractiveness to your kitchen. Not only convenient, economical and efficient, but a distinctive addition to any household.



During April only we are offering a most liberal allowance for your old range as a down payment on one of the new Waldorfs. Many have already appreciated this unusual offer. Think of a new electric range priced from $74.50 to $99.50, with your old range at a liberal trade in. Think of the splendid advantage possible under the new residential rate's application.

THE CAR that has WON AMERICA

The Ford V-8 for 1935 has been an outstanding success, not because of anything we have said about it but because of what owners have said. At Country Clubs . . . In Pullman Cars . . . In Airplanes . . . In Living Rooms . . . At filling stations and on the streets. And all these comments tend to fall under four heads: one, "The new V-8 rides like a dream"; two, "It's smartly designed"; three, "It costs less to run" and four, "It performs like 'nobody's business'!"

AUTHORIZED FORD DEALERS OF THE SOUTHWEST

• AT A FILLING STATION

"We don't see you so often, Mr. Bradley."

"Well—I don't have to come around for gas quite so often with this new Ford V-8. It's by all odds the most economical car I've ever driven—and that goes for oil consumption, too."

• 4,000 FT. OVER THE ALLEGHANIES

"Pretty smooth flying today."

"Yes, the folks back home wouldn't believe it if I told them this airplane ride was rough compared to a trip in our Ford V-8."

"You got one too?—Say! that 'Comfort Zone Ride' in this year's job has got to be tried to be appreciated, hasn't it?"

• AT A BRIDGE TABLE

"I didn't realize until I saw your Ford how really smart a car it is."

"Inside or out?"

"Both . . . And the roominess! . . . Why there's all that space for bags and still George said there was more room for his legs than in a limousine."

Tierra Blanca and Hales Winners at Plainview Exhibit

Tierra Blanca Dairy Farm and H. B. Hales repeated in their winnings at the Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show at Plainview this week. The following awards were made to the two Randall County herds in milk production:

Cows 5 years or older: Tierra Blanca, 1st; Hales, 8th.

Cows 4 years: Tierra Blanca, 1st and 2nd.

Cows under 2 years: Hales, 4th; Tierra Blanca, 5th.

In the Jersey show, Tierra Blanca gained recognition by winning junior and grand champion bull. In addition the following placements were made:

Bull 18 months, and under 24, 2nd.

Bull 6 months and under 12, 1st; and 4th.

Bull under 6 months, 3rd.

Junior and grand champion, Syril's Dreaming Sam.

At a meeting of the exhibitors yesterday, H. B. Hales of Randall County was elected president of the association for the coming year.

Frank R. Phillips is directing the program of speeches for the show.

No Relief Money on Hand for Work On Local Projects

Money was exhausted at the relief office again this week, and all projects were suspended.

No indication has been received from Austin as to when another check will be forwarded for a renewal of work projects.

School Trustees Named Districts of the County

The following trustees were named last week in the school districts of the county:

No. 25, Palo Duro, W. T. Oliver, W. G. Rose.
No. 19, J. L. Brandt.
No. 12, Otto Farmer.
No. 6, John Haines.
No. 22, T. G. Lair.
No. 8, Curtis P. Robertson.
No. 10, S. F. Shyerer.
No. 9, M. R. Miller.
No. 11, R. Friemel.
No. 11 Fred Friemel.
No. 16, C. W. Bauer.

Frank R. Phillips was re-elected member of the county school board.

tickets and admissions to athletic field; Al Baggett and Bob Cox, locker assignments; Miss Marion Normington, home economics contests; Miss Mary E. Hudspeth, Spanish contest; Marian O'Brian, progress of the meet.

All money paid by entrants will be rebated to contestants, after actual expenses of the meet are paid, according to Director General W. E. Lockhart.

Contests will begin at nine o'clock and finals will be over Saturday night.

PLATEAU SINGERS AT PARK ON JUNE 15-16

Members of the Plateau Singing Convention will gather at the Palo Duro State Park on June 15-16. John F. Taylor reports great interest over this section in this convention.

A number from Canyon will attend the singing at Borger next Sunday.

Soil Erosion

Soil Erosion Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This program involves many things. Perhaps some changes in our system of farming.

A series of meetings to explain the proposed wind erosion control program will be held according to the following schedule:

Jowell School, Friday, April 19, at 2:30 p. m.

Canyon Court House, Saturday, April 20, at 1:30 p. m.

Sunny Hill School, Monday, April 22, at 10 a. m.

Park School, Monday, April 22, at 2:30 p. m.

Trigg School, Tuesday, April 23, at 2:30 p. m.

It is important that all farmers interested attend their own community meetings.

Ladies invited to all meetings.

Both the present emergency listing program, as well as the permanent wind erosion program to follow, will be discussed at these meetings. Permanent community organization will be necessary.

We hope to have blanks on hand by Friday, April 19, for securing the ten cents per acre in fuel for listing. These will require signatures of a community committee. We will try to arrange this with the least possible delay.

Historical Meet

sifications was adopted making annual dues $3, annual sustaining memberships $25, life memberships $100, fellows $500, patrons $1,000, associate benefactors $2,500, benefactors $5,000, founders $10,000, and endowment members $25,000. A cumulative advancement program will be in the power of the board of directors. The board will also have power to recognize volunteer research with the classification of research associate, and to bestow classifications to persons making donations of collections to the society.

The name of Miss Susan J. Allen was voted to be placed on the rolls of the Society as benefactor because of her contribution of rare and valuable Indian relics.

James O. Guleke, of Amarillo, presented to the museum a respirator such as are being sold in stores of the Panhandle today, in order that posterity can know the ravages of the one-way plow. Mr. Guleke also made a presentation for Hattie M. Plemons of the portrait of Judge W. B. Plemons and also a personal gift of a centennial map of Texas presented to him by the Texas Daughters of the American Revolution.

R. W. Prentice, of Amarillo, presented the museum with a historical record of the First Christian Church of Amarillo.

Following the general business session and the presentation of these objects to the museum, Professor C. Stuart Johnston, of the College, addressed the group on the pre-historic past in this country. Following the lecture itself, slides of pre-historic animals in this country were thrown on the screen and Mr. Johnston explained them, their place in histology.

Approximately 175 people assembled in the Cousins Hall Dining Hall Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock for the 14th Annual Banquet of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society. Judge R. Walker Hall of Amarillo was toastmaster of the occasion.

After the invocation by Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, Dr. J. A. Hill of the College gave the welcome address. Dr. Hill drew an analogy between the activities of the pioneers in building up this country and the efforts expended in building up the college through a period of twenty-five years. Following this, Dr. Hill introduced his special guests on the occasion, Mrs. Clara McCormick and her son, Bill, who was the companion of Joe Hill at the South Pole.

Mrs. John Josey of Amarillo played two violin solos, a Victor Herbert Medley and "L'Amour Toujours" accompanied by her husband at the piano. An encore was "Dark Eyes."

The main speaker of the occasion was the Hon. J. C. Swift, Kansas City. Swift told of the extensiveness of Texas, admonished his listeners not to envy the man who lives in the town. He described the grass as the best friend of man. Swift also told of his experience in Texas.

The museum was highly praised by the speaker as a noteable undertaking which is of the greatest benefit to this section.

"The Panhandle will bloom again," stated Mr. Swift, who has witnessed many drouths. "The man who disturbs the earth should stop, look, and listen," he admonished, as he paid a tribute to grass, the connecting link between forest and the desert.

Following the speaker the Beacon Quartet of Amarillo sang "Ole Faithful" and "Rain." The encore was "Shortnin' Bread."

Special guests of the members of the Society were introduced.

Dr. B. F. Fronabarger, head of the Department of English, has accepted an invitation to deliver the commencement address at the Farwell High School on May 17.

1941 Automobiles And Trucks Registered in the County

Automobile registration has increased somewhat since the first of April as owners decided not to be without the use of their machines and came in to buy the new plates.

A total of 1621 passenger cars and 320 trucks have been registered up to the present time. The number of trucks to be registered next quarter will depend entirely upon the prospects for wheat, but the number of cars will be increased throughout the year as more people decide upon using their automobiles rather than let them remain in the garage.

Baggett Schedules Two Important Football Games for Fall

Coach Al Baggett has signed a two years' contract with St. Benedict College of Atchison, Kansas. The two football teams have played the past two years, the Ravens winning both games.

The game this fall will be played in Canyon on Nov. 2.

Another game scheduled is with T. W. C. of Fort Worth on Oct. 5.

This college, formerly a girls' school, has become a co-educational institution, and put out its first football team last fall.

Mrs. Clyde Warwick returned Tuesday from Florence, Alabama, where she visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Winkelman.

Request Is Made For Increase In FERA Student Aid

It is entirely possible that there will be more than 200 college students in Canyon next year through the assistance of the government under the FERA.

Professor C. A. Murray who attended a conference of FERA administrators at Dallas last weekend, found it the opinion of college presidents and the Texas Relief office that a quota of 30 percent would be much more just than the present quota of 12 percent. There are 91 students receiving this aid in the local college now.

J. C. Bisset, Assistant Chief Engineer of the Texas Relief Commission, was the principal speaker at the conference and he stated that it was the purpose of the FERA to train young people to become good citizens and practised community workers, and that student workers should be assigned to do valuable tasks.

T. O. Walton of A. & M. College was made chairman of the committee which decided to ask for an increased quota of government aided students.

Mr. Murray reports that most of those present at the meeting believe that student aid is a fine thing.

The West Texas State Teachers College has been highly complimented upon the way its FERA work is managed.

Virgil McGee, senior in A. & M. College, is here to spend the weekend at the parental R. McGee home.

BABY CHICKS
5000 HATCHING EACH WEEK!

Rhode Island Reds, Barred Rocks, Buff Orpingtons, White Rocks, Buff Minorcas, White Leghorns, all from state approved flocks. Hatches off Wednesdays and Saturdays.

CUSTOMS HATCHING:

Eggs set in our Jamesway Incubator Hatcher are incubated under conditions which are scientifically correct, adverse weather conditions having no effect on hatches. At hatching time each tray is moved into a compartment entirely independent from all other eggs. Bring eggs Mondays and Thursdays.

PURINA POULTRY FEEDS:

You can buy a cheaper feed; but you can't buy a better feed regardless of price.

Salesbury's Poultry Remedies:

A full line of reliable remedies for every need. Let us help you with your poultry problems.

Jamesway Poultry Equipment:

A standard line of high grade equipment for every need at reasonable prices.
